Eleven colleges, the same number of preparatory schools and high schools clubs are entered in the long list of open and special events.

While there are no metropolitan o national runners imported for the oc asion, followers of the meets will find plenty of keen competition chiefly among the athletes of the colleges in this secion of the country. The Blue and Gray meet has been awarded four title event for championships. Virginia, Washington and Lee, Catho lic University, George Washington, Maryland Agricultural College, Johns Hopkins, and Virginia Polytechnic have ent the pick of the athletic talent in the effort to land the coveted honors. St. Albans, Central, Tech, Episcopal, Baltimore City College, Wake Forest, Baltimore City College, Wake Forest, Woodberry Forest, Manassas, Western, and the Georgetown Preps are all putting their youngsters in the scholastic and open races.

The Fifth Regiment, of Baltimore; the Baltimore Athletic Club, Baltimore Cross-Country Club, Carroll Institute, Washington Swimming Club, Lord Baltimore Club, and Maryland Swimming Club men are primed for the relays.

Club men are primed for the relays.

The 50-yard novice is a gamble, H. Young and H. Cromwell, of Washington and Lee; Orland Leighty and J. Dickman, of Georgestown, look to be the choice in this gallop. The open fifty will bring Brooke Brewer, of St. Albans, up against such stars as Mohhissey, of Lehigh; Young, Heuke, and Curtis, of Washington and Lee; Leighty, Auray, Weiser, and Griffith, of Georgetown, to whom the school boy will be forced to concede handicaps. This race will depend upon the leniency of Handicapper England as to whether the local speed marvel will get a chance to flash in alread.

Morrissey, Lehigh; Young, Curtis, Houke, of Washinston and Lee; Axt, Jones, and Rakemann, of Maryland Aggles; Straus and Uhler, of Johns Hoppies; Straus and Uhler, of Georgetown, look of the 50-yard dash for the invitation event, and Morrissey will in the curtis of the places.

Dempater of Hopkins; Wilson, of Virand Carlis, of W. and L., will it out in the 50-yard S. hurdle event. In the fifty scholastic. Brewer and Maxam, of St. A., will be forcer to concede many feet in handicaps to the other youngsters, who include Kirby, of Tech; Milstead, of Central; Weller, of G. U.
Preps; Millard, of Central; and Seward and Strubing, of Episcopal. There is a grand chance for a limit runner to come through in this event.

The shotput for the college titles will bring together several football players of prominence. Buck Mayer and Harris Celeman, of Virginia; Pierrotti. of Washington and Lee, and O'Connor. Green and Dewhurst, of Georgetown, are the class of the weight heavers.

Norris, of Virginia, and Allen, of the same college, should lead in the SO-vard run for the title. The scholastic quarter will bring out Maxam, winner last Saturday: Birthwright and 'adiatead, of Central. The open quarter will probably find Morrissey, of Lehigh, on scratch, and he will find plenty of competition when the Catholic University runners are turned loose. Sullivan Field, Keane, and Horn will probably be in the running.

The 600-yard novice brings out a big field, while the 890-open will see Carter, of St. Albans; Uhler, of Hopkins; Driscoll, of C. U., and Mahoney, of the C. A. C., giving the field a chase. The same runners will probably be hooked up at the finish with Altcheson, of M. A. C.; Unsold, of Baltimore, and Karl Knight, of the Washington Swimmers, in the mile.

Of relays there are plenty. George-town meets Lehigh, Catholic University rups George Washington, Gallaudet en-gages Maryland Aggies, while several clubs and schols have been matched at shorter distances.

Red and White Lads Defeat Army and Navy Preps by 22 to 17 in Hardest Fought Game of Series.

Central Also Wins Battle.

By BRYAN MORSE. At no time during the game was either team more than a point in the lead save in the last five minutes when goals by Chamberlaine and Peck decided the issue. Nine times during the game the score stood at a tie. The players were completely exhausted at the conclusion of the first half. Knudsen, Miller, and Gilmartin played the best game for the Preps. All of the Western players were in the limelight at all times and showed a fighting spirit that carried them in ahead of the heavier and older opponents.

From Foul Line to Pit

Central meets Tome Institute at Port Deposit, Md., today, and can expect a beating after yesterday's tough battle with the Georgetown Preps.

Eastern and Central were slated to Eastern and Central were slated to meet in the other game of the double bill, but the Easterners were forced to fill a date in Virginia. After notifying the league that they would be unable to be present. Eastern went away. A change in the schedule was made after Eastern had signed up for games at Woodstock and Waynesboro. The circuit will vote upon whether the failure to play Central will be regarded as a forfeiture or a postponement.

Central met Georgetown Preps in a snappy game in place of Eastern. The Hilltop youngsters took the count after a hard battle by a score of 13 to 14. Billy Martin's youngsters were unfamiliar with the slippery floor, but showed up well in shooting and passing.

The Western-Army and Navy Prep game was a thriller for the entire route. Tech dropped a 19-to-15 game to the Carroll Institute team after leading during the greater part of the contest. Tech maintained its lead chiefly through accuracy in shooting fouls.
